
trytond*product_cost_history* Documentation

Release 4.0

Nov 24, 2018

Contents

The Product Cost History Module enable the historization of the cost price on the product. Every time the product cost is updated, the new value is stored in an historization table. The module also add a Cost History button on the bottom of the product form that allow to look at the historical values of the cost price.